

73RD ANNUAL LAW ENFORCEMENT APPRECIATION LUNCHEON

DRAFTING A COMMUNITY OF CHAMPIONS

EMCEE

LARA MORITZ, KMBC 9 NEWS ANCHOR

Every reporter gathers interesting stories to tell, and Lara Moritz is no exception. As an anchor for KMBC 9, the stories she tells have not only led to success in her career but also inspired her personally. Her journalistic integrity has earned her three Edward R. Murrow awards and three Emmys. Outside of work she enjoys running marathons.

DRAFT ANALYSTS

DANAN HUGHES: FORMER CHIEFS WIDE RECEIVER, CHIEFS RADIO NETWORK COLOR ANALYST

Drafted by the Milwaukee Brewers in the 3rd Round, Danan Hughes played pro baseball for two years before being drafted by the Chiefs in 1993. Hughes played six years with the Chiefs. He now serves as the President of the NFL Alumni-KC Chapter, the Communications Director for the KC Chiefs Ambassadors, and the Color Analyst for the Chiefs Radio Network. Hughes was recently inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame.

LEN JENNINGS: KMBC 9 SPORTS ANCHOR

There's no better opinion to get on the draft than from Len Jennings, KMBC 9 Sports News reporter. Along with dedicating his broadcasting to sports, he also uses his platform to bring attention to stories close to his heart. His coverage of his friend's experience with ALS earned Jennings two Florida AP awards. In his free time, Jennings enjoys running marathons and supporting charitable organizations.

DRAFT PANELISTS

KATHY NELSON: PRESIDENT AND CEO, KANSAS CITY SPORTS COMMISSION AND WIN FOR KC

Kathy Nelson works tirelessly to promote Kansas City sports locally and nationally. She played a huge role in bringing the 2023 NFL Draft and the 2026 World Cup to Kansas City. Nelson's efforts have earned her numerous awards, including the Kansas City Star's 2020 list of the 50 Most Influential People in Kansas City Sports History. Nelson was enshrined into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in 2020.

DANTE HALL: GREATEST KICK AND PUNT RETURN SPECIALIST IN CHIEFS FRANCHISE HISTORY

Dante Hall was drafted by the Chiefs in the 5th round of the 2000 NFL Draft. Nicknamed "The Human Joystick" and "X-Factor," Hall was the greatest kick and punt return specialist in Chiefs franchise history. He played nine years in the NFL and was selected to the Pro Bowl in 2002 and 2003. Hall is listed third on the NFL's All-Time Kick and Punt Return Touchdown Leaders.

SHAWN BARBER: FORMER CHIEFS LINEBACKER, PRESIDENT OF THE KANSAS CITY CHIEFS AMBASSADORS

Shawn Barber's 10-year NFL career included stints with Washington, Kansas City, Philadelphia, and Houston. Following his NFL playing career, Barber coached and scouted for NFL teams. Currently, Barber is a contributor on several Chiefs programs with 65TPT Productions and 610 Sports Radio. He also serves as President of the Kansas City Chiefs Ambassadors.

PANEL MODERATOR

MITCH HOLTHUS, VOICE OF THE KANSAS CITY CHIEFS

Now in his 29th season as Voice of the Chiefs, Holthus was on the call of the Chiefs Championship in Super Bowl 54. He is one of only three individuals inducted into the Hall of Fame for both the Kansas Association of Broadcasters and the Missouri Broadcasters Association. Holthus is a four-time Emmy award winner. He also is a member of the Kansas State University Athletics Hall of Fame.
